Capturing a Moment

Stamp artist Michael J. Deas brings a unique perspective to a classic subject.

Though he's no stranger to stamp illustration, Michael J. Deas might initially seem like an odd choice for an issuance featuring trains; the artist's other stamps have largely featured portraits, from Audrey Hepburn to Edgar Allan Poe. But the massive, sun-touched clouds in one of his paintings for the Lewis & Clark Expedition Bicentennial issuance caught art director Greg Breeding's eye. "Of course," Breeding says, "I had to interview him and ask, 'How do you feel about applying your process to a train?'"

The transcontinental railroad was a massive engineering feat that covered about 1,800 miles. Released to commemorate the railroad's 150th anniversary, the elegant new stamps feature the Union Pacific Railroad's No. 119 and the Central Pacific's Jupiter, two engines that converged for a ceremony where the eastern and western sections of the railway were joined. The center stamp shows the golden spike, which completed the connection of the tracks and played a prominent role in the event.

Deas says he welcomed the opportunity to move away from traditional portraiture. "It was a nice change to do a landscape," he says. "And I've always loved vintage trains — the vibrant colors used to paint the cabs and their tenders, the almost lace-like brass fixtures used to adorn them. Vintage locomotives are just beautiful examples of 19th-century industrial design."

As references, Deas used photographs showing near-replicas of the two engines. Located at the site of the Golden Spike Ceremony in Promontory Summit, Utah, the models were built within a quarter-inch of the originals, and their crisp colors were replicated as closely as possible. A newspaper's eyewitness account described the Central Pacific's engine, the Jupiter; the No. 119's details came from paint records kept by the Union Pacific. To capture the feeling of the time period, Deas rendered the trains using 19th-century painting techniques, drawing them first in pencil, then overlaying them with gray and earth-colored tones before adding further layers of rich color.

The final effect, Breeding notes, is not unlike a portrait. "You can see a reflection off the train's side — an elegant, soft light," he says. "In a portrait, there's that moment that says something about the subject's personality — the twinkle in their eye or smirk on their face. There's something of that at work with these trains. These paintings capture a moment."

Ellsworth Kelly

First-Class Rate Forever® / With these striking new stamps, the U.S. Postal Service® honors artist Ellsworth Kelly. In a career spanning some 70 years, Kelly pioneered a distinctive style of abstraction based on real elements reduced to their essential forms. In painting shapes — like a tennis court, a smokestack on a tugboat, or the roof of a barn — as flat panes of color, he removed their dimensionality and turned reality into abstraction. Kelly's art encompasses painting, sculpture, and works on paper, drawing on careful observations of light and shadow, negative space, and line and form. He was one of the first artists to create shaped canvases and to challenge the artificial distinction between art and architecture. Contemplative and uncategorizable, his work expanded the possibilities of abstract art while also championing the simple art of looking.

The 20 stamps on the pane depict 10 of Kelly's works, each represented twice. The selva features a detail from his 1971 creation Blue Yellow Red III.

Year of the Peach Blossom

in China, peach trees typically bloom in early February, just in time for the new year.

2019
2007
1995
1983
1971

The ancient Chinese regarded the peach tree as a divine wood that expelled evil spirits, and the appearance of the bright pink blossoms marked the beginning of spring.

Stamp illustrator Kam Mak first considered depicting entire blossoms instead, since the branches are easier to obtain in New York City, where he lives. But peach blossoms were the flowers he remembered most vividly from the festive of his childhood. To make sure he created an authentic image, Mak purchased a branch in New York's flower district, at a shop that orders peach blossoms from the West Coast in time for the Lunar New Year. "They told me I couldn't reserve in advance, so I checked almost every day," he says. The branch arrived with five buds all closed. Mak took it home and waited patiently for the delicate blossoms to open.

Once the flowers on the branch began to bloom, Mak began snapping photos.

"I had to be very careful, because I knew a botanist could see it and say, 'That's not it!'"

— Kam Mak

USA Philatelic ORDER FORM

Visit The Postal Store® @ www.usps.com

HOW TO PLACE ORDERS

STANDARD ORDERS

ALL STAMP ITEMS HAVE 6-DIGIT ITEM NUMBERS. Just enter the 6-digit item number in the "ITEM NUMBER" space on the order form, along with the quantity.

HOW TO ORDER INDIVIDUAL ITEMS. All stamps with separate item numbers are pretorn and prepackaged. To order 3 blocks of 4 Gregory Hines stamps, you would fill in "477002" under "ITEM NUMBER" and enter "3" under "QUANTITY." You would receive 3 individually prepackaged blocks of 4 stamps. Requests for more than 20 per item number will not be prepackaged, and may be converted to full panes and coils. Self-adhesive coils will not be converted. Requests for more than 20 of an individually prepackaged item will incur the custom order fee plus an additional 10¢ per item.

CUSTOM ORDERS

HOW TO REQUEST CUSTOM ORDERS: Custom orders are configurations other than those listed for each item and will result in an additional $2.25 custom order fee. Standard packaging configuration for press sheets is rolled. A request to ship press sheets flat is considered a custom order. Booklets and self-adhesive coils are not available as custom orders. All items have 6-digit item numbers. The first 4 digits plus "01" make the base number for custom orders (future reprint varieties will use the first 4 digits plus "01", "02", etc., depending on the sequence of variety). For example: For a block of 5 Hearts Blossom stamps, you would use item number 5650"01", quantity of 5, for a total of $2.75. You would receive a block of 5 connected stamps.

Example:

| ITEM NUMBER | QUANTITY | PRICE (each) | TOTAL |
|-------------|----------|--------------|-------|
| 565001      | 5        | .55          | 2.75  |

For all positions, use the base number and note the position(s) requested under "Special Order Instructions" on the order form.

Not all souvenir sheets are available with plate positions. If an item is available with plate positions, it will be noted in each individual listing.

MINIMUM ORDERS FOR PLATE NUMBERS AND POSITIONS:

Plate numbers or marginal inscriptions for stamps with selvage can be ordered in minimum quantities:

|                           |                                  |
|---------------------------|----------------------------------|
| For 1¢ to 55¢ stamps:     | Full pane                        |
| For 56¢ to $1.15 stamps: | Full pane or block (per listing) |
| For $1.16 and up stamps: | Block of 4                       |

Requests for non-prepacked items will result in a custom order charge. If you need assistance with your order or would like to speak with a customer service representative, please call 1 (800) 782-6724, Mon-Fri 8AM-8PM EST; Sat 8AM-6PM EST; closed Sundays and postal holidays.

GENERAL INFORMATION

EXCHANGES: We always strive to deliver stamps of the highest quality. If you receive a damaged or flawed item, it may be sent back for an exchange. Please complete the Merchandise Exchange/Order Form located at the bottom portion of your pack slip within 30 days of receipt. Be sure to include a copy of your entire exchange/order form/packslip. You must return the complete product for mint set exchanges. Coil strips of 500 cannot be returned or exchanged.

PREORDERS: All orders for items not yet on sale will be placed on preorder status, and will be sent out when all preordered items are in stock. Items that are in stock on the same order will be sent out promptly. Certain products are not available for preorder. Please refer to specific products for preorder information.

AVAILABILITY: All items listed in this catalog are subject to availability. Stamp Fulfillment Services (SFS) reserves the right to withdraw any item from sale without prior notice.

STAMPS NO LONGER AVAILABLE: Stamps no longer available from the U.S. Postal Service® may be purchased from stamp dealers on the secondary market.

UNDERPAYMENT: If payment is not sufficient, items will be deleted from your order. Every effort will be made to avoid deleting items that will soon be off sale.

OVERPAYMENT: Payments received for items not available and funds received in excess of order total (overpayment) will be refunded within 15 business days. Refund must exceed $1.00.

MISSING ORDERS: Any claim for an order that was paid for but not received within 30 days must include one of the following: (1) a copy of both sides of the cancelled check with the endorsement date on the back, or (2) a photocopy of your credit card bill along with your philatelic identification number, if known.

CLAIMS: Any claims on fulfilled orders, or any requests for exchange of damaged items, must be submitted within 30 days of receipt to Stamp Fulfillment Services, P.O. Box 219424, Kansas City, MO 64121-9424. The telephone number is 1 (800) 782-6724 (from outside the U.S., call 1 816 545-1000). Our e-mail address is sfsdelivery.confirmation@usps.gov. Please do not place orders through this e-mail address.

MARGINAL INSCRIPTIONS: Various kinds of markings may appear on the selvage of stamps printed in sheets—plate numbers, the U.S. Postal Service® copyright notice, color control markings, informational inscriptions, and other printing marks or U.S. Postal Service® slogans. Plate blocks (a block of stamps including the plate number) vary according to issue and plate position. You may specify other marginal inscription blocks for any issue on which they appear under "Special Order Instructions" on the order form. See additional information and instructions under "Custom Orders." Any such order will be charged the custom order fee.

ROUND ROBINS: Stamps printed in sheets are trimmed into individual panes, and sets of matching panes may be purchased. High-value ($1.16 and up) plate blocks are often purchased as matching plate blocks of four: one from each corner of the pane, each with its plate number in a different position.

FOR OFFSET/INTAGLIO ISSUES: Due to frequent changes of offset plates, we can guarantee matched sets of intaglio plate numbers only.

FOR BOOKLETS AND COILS: We cannot guarantee specific plate numbers, slogans, or electric-eye markings.

PAYMENT

Payment may be made by credit card (American Express®, MasterCard®, VISA®, DISCOVER®/Novus), check, bank draft or a U.S. Postal Service® Money Order made payable to USPS®. We cannot accept any C.O.D. orders. Credit card orders are not accepted for precancelled stamps.

Beyond the Perf

Stamp creators offer the most compelling questions from the artistic process

How can we honor the vital role dogs play in the military?

"I remember wrestling with that question for hours," says stamp designer Mike Ryan. "There was a tone we needed to strike. It felt like honoring a person — I wanted to do right by these dogs."

The answer lay in something simple: composition. When Ryan and stamp art director Greg Breeding first discussed how to pose the dogs, several possibilities arose. Should the dogs leap across each stamp frame? Should the stamps show only their heads and shoulders like traditional human portraits? "We quickly realized those options felt too playful," Ryan says. Instead, the pair began considering poses that would evoke an air of nobility. In the final artwork created by illustrator Nathan Goldman and his team at DKNJ Studios, the German shepherd and the Dutch shepherd stand alert and ready to enter the action, while the Labrador retriever and the Belgian Malinois sit in positions that convey attention and obedience. "To me, the most successful thing about the stamps is how regal they feel," says Ryan. "I think they give these dogs the integrity they deserve."
